

Statement on Maintaining Integrity of FagronLab Primary Packaging

The FagronLab jars and accessories are classified as primary packaging.

All jars and accessories come sealed in plastic packaging and are ready-to-us.

Cleaning or disinfection prior usage could put the certified low microbiological and particle contamination at risk.

We recommend storing the jar and accessories in its plastic packaging after opening for protection against possible dust contamination.

gako